

ACTIVE PATHWAYS SUBSIDISED MEMBERSHIP

Peninsula Leisure are proud to offer the Active Pathways subsidised membership program in partnership with Reclink Australia, to provide inclusive pathways to improved health and wellbeing for individuals experiencing disadvantage in the City of Frankston.

MEMBERSHIP OPTIONS

Peninsula Leisure offer the following membership options at heavily subsidised rates for approved applicants:

16 - 25 YEARS OF AGE

PARC 3-month Full Access Active Pathways membership,
or
Pines 10 Visit pass Aquatic

26 YEARS OF AGE & ABOVE

PARC 3-month Full Access Active Pathways membership,
or
PARC 3-month Aquatic Access Active Pathways membership,
or
Pines 10 Visit Pass Aquatic

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for Active Pathways, participants must:

- reside within the City of Frankston
- be 16 years of age or over
- be referred to the program through a support agency
- be approved for the program by Reclink Australia

RENEWAL CRITERIA FOR MEMBERSHIP

Eligible participants can renew their membership for an additional 3 months by demonstrating the following criteria at the conclusion of their current membership:

- still residing in City of Frankston
- attended minimum of 10 times in past 3 months

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

INDIVIDUALS LOOKING TO JOIN THE PROGRAM

- If you are currently affiliated with a support agency, please ask your agency support worker to contact Reclink Australia to make an appointment for you.
- If you are not currently affiliated with a support agency, the following member agencies of Reclink Australia are available in Frankston and can assist with the application process onto the Active Pathways program:
 - Campbell Page Ltd: Disability Employment Services - 1300 139 920
 - Youth Support & Advocacy Service (YSAS): Headspace - 9769 6419
 - Whitelion Inc: PIVOT - Suite 1, 39A Davey St Frankston
 - Peninsula Health: Drug and Alcohol Service – 1800 888 236
 - Wellways Australia: Mental Health and Wellbeing Local – 1300 000 525

SUPPORT AGENCY REPRESENTATIVES REFERRING TO PROGRAM

- If you have a client you would like to refer to Active Pathways, please contact Funda Nakkasoglu at Reclink Australia via funda.nakkasoglu@reclink.org to discuss your client's application.

The program is funded by Peninsula Leisure with assistance from Reclink Australia through funding from the VicHealth Future Active program and the Victorian Government through the Community Support Fund.

info@peninsulaleisure.com.au | parc.peninsulaleisure.com.au/membership